

8/7/12 - Should you be surprised? Ochocinco continues to plummet from football relevance. On Saturday, August 11, 2012 Mr. Ochocinco found himself in a confrontation with his wife of five months. The confrontation was a result of his bride coming across a receipt for condoms in Mr. Ochocinco's wallet...sidenote, Ocho has never used a profylactic with his bride. His response to wife's attitude was, "not using condoms would be flat our irresponsible", and then he promptly ended the discussion with a head-butt to her forehead resulting in his arrest.

8/7/12 - The 2012 Olympics has come to a close and USA again established themselves as the most badass country on the planet!

8/7/12 - Rory McIlroy is without little debate one of the top two golfers in the world, and will be the greatest golfer in the world for the next fifteen years. In the past year and change he has won the US Open and PGA Championship by a combined 16 shots. Those kind of numbers haven't been put up since Ron Jeremy in his hay day. To put what McIlroy has done in perspective, he is a few months younger than Tiger Woods was when Tiger won his second major...the challenge will be picking up nine more in the next seven years like Tiger did. A big STC Congratulations to Rory McIlroy!!!!

8/5/12 - Some consider the Olympic Champion of the decathalon the greatest athlete in the world, considering the skill, stamina, strength, speed...essentially all the measurables that go into being an Olympic Champion Decathalete this modest STC Competition Committee would have to agree. It was a special weekend for the United States of America as they had to of their own place first and second in the decathalon. Way to go Ashton Eaton and Trey Hardee, way to show those rest of those jokers that they were simply playing for third.

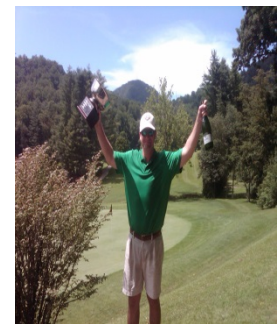

8/7/12 - The 2012 Olympics has not been short of incredible. With gold medals being awarded to USA like cupcakes to fat kids. One can't help but to be filled with patriotism and inspiration by the efforts of Michael Phelps, Gabbie Douglas and the entire USA Women's Gymnastics team, men's and women's volleyball, the track stars, and you can't omit the USA Women's Soccer team. The semi-final against Canada was an instant classic. To all Americans, the challenge is out to set aside a couple hours and pull these fine young ladies in on to the Gold against the staunch (though not vertically intimidating) Japanese. Let's go USA!!!!!!

7/23/12 - A gigantic standing ovation goes out to the 2012 STC Cup Champions, Team Heart! The boys arrived at Springdale with their game faces on ready to compete. The 2012 STC Cup was one of the finest cups to date, the competition, venue, staff, and weekends event were all top shelf. Congratulations to Captain Leverett, Brock Patrick, Matt Griffin, Bubba Helton, Trey Hargrove, Warren Morris, Jonathan Adams, and Josh Pinson on winning the 2012 STC Cup...a job well done and a victory that will never be taken away from you.

7/11/12 - Final preparations are being made for the 2012 STC Cup...these preparations include trips to Bonaventure, the Chiro, pharmacy, swing coach, marriage counselor, family doctor and the ENT. There is a battle coming our way and that battle is for the right to be called an STC Cup Champion for the following twelve months. Hot damn, holy shit, this is going to be one for the ages...tie the laces a little tighter, slap on a couple more layers of sunblock, pack the coolers with an extra bottle of Boones Farm and six extra Natty's, throw a backup sleeve of Cope in the golf bag and lets tee the SOB up!

7/11/12 - There was hardly a dry eye in the house at last night's MLB All-Star game as Chipper Jones was taking the field in a All-Star game for his eighth and final time. A big STC Cup thank you for all the years we've been able to sit in front of the television and watch Mr. Larry Wayne "Chipper" Jones take the field for our beloved Atlanta Braves. There is a lot to say about a guy that you watched on the television as a kid and today I am still watching him on the television with my kid by my side. And you have to admit, the STC Cup much like Chipper have always had a special place in their hearts for Hooters girls.

7/3/12 - Following a weapons charge arrest UGA running back Isaiah Crowell was suspended immediately from the University of Georgia football team. In less than a year Crowell managed to be suspended more than four times while still being awarded the SEC Freshman of the Year. This story of immense talent combined with superior immaturity and common sense has become all too familiar within the ranks of college football.

7/2/12 - The following PDF link is one hell of an exchange between a current linebacker for the University of Georgia and a full hearted dog fan, if some of the comments in the below article are offensive too bad...pdf file - Cornelius vs Nettles

7/2/12 - The Friday STC Cup Four Ball matches have been set. Matt Mills and Brian Taylor will be kicking off the 2012 STC Cup against Josh Pinson and Brock Patrick. The other matches are as follows, Match 2 - David Rivers/ Brad Shingler vs. Matt Griffin/ Bubba Helton, Match 3 - Matt Martin/ Drew Daniel vs. Michael Leverett/ Warren Morris, Match 4 - Charles Dunstan/ Travis Wright vs. Trey Hargrove/ Jonathan Adams (matches are updated in the War Room)

7/2/12 - Breaking News....the venue for the 2012 STC Cup practice round has been announced, the STC'rs will be taking their talents to the prestigious Waynesville Inn located in Waynesville, NC. The Waynesville Inn has been on the short list for possible STC Cup hosting venues and this practice round and Thursday night stay will serve as a great tryout for this highly acclaimed Stay and Play venue.

7/2/12 - The two man STC Cup Calcutta Teams have been set. The 2012 STC Cup Calcutta will be in play during the first two rounds. The teams are as follows...Brian Taylor/ Matt Griffin, Matt Martin/ Trey Hargrove, Charles Dunstan/ Michael Leverett, Matt Mills/ Brock Patrick, Brad Shingler/ Jonathan Adams, Drew Daniel/ Warren Morris, David Rivers/ Bubba Helton, Travis Wright/ Josh Pinson

7/2/12 - We are only a few weeks out from the 2012 STC Cup and games are shaping into form. Team Heart members Michael Leverett, Brock Patrick, and Trey Hargrove are believed to be playing some of their best golf of the year. Team Luxury members Matt Martin, Drew Daniel and Travis Wright's games have lately shown some serious signs of consistency with some very solid play as of late. Rest assured, to win this year's Cup participant's games will need to be at their best.

6/20/12 - Breaking STC Cup news...Mr. Matt "Ducky" Griffin feels fan-damn-tastic and is ready to battle!!!!

6/20/12 - Breaking STC Cup news...in a recent and encouraging turn of events for Team Heart, a few of the Team Heart members have been absolutely wearing out a few of the horses from Team Luxury on the golf course, for Team Heart's sake, let's hope this a sign of things to come at Springdale (Rivers needs to get focused because he's tired of giving his hard earned diaper money to Leverett and Patrick)

6/8/12 - You will not believe your eyes, known for having one of the more athletically intimidating builds on the PGA Tour fans and fellow tour players were stargazing at the rare site of the bare legs of Mr. Phil Mickelson during a warmup round at Oympic Club this afternoon. "You hear about the hard work he's put in the gym over the past two years, but to see the calf results he's been getting up close was truly something I will take with me forever, to be the best you have to put your time in on the course and in the weight room...he's always been someone I look up to but now, all I can say is WOW", said Patrick Cantlay following the UCLA prodigies US Open practice round with Phil Mickelson.

6/8/12 - Breaking STC Cup news...1st Pick Jinx? Is it still alive or has he shaken it? The first overall pick of the 2012 STC Cup Draft, Mr. Matt "Ducky" Griffin has suffered a minor setback while preparing for the upcoming cup. One of the hottest STC Cuppers over the past 24 months was apparantly working token punch shot when the rib injury occurred. This will put Ducky on the sideline for approximately 14 days. At this point in time Team Heart is looking more like Team Mash Unit.
